

ECF | June 26, 2025

Bio:

Lamar Taylor is the Chief Investment Officer of the State Board of Administration of Florida (SBA), a state constitutionally-created $250 billion investment management organization providing investment and trust services to certain Florida governmental entities. Since joining the board in 2002, he has served in key roles throughout the organization, including Deputy General Counsel, Deputy Executive Director, Chief Operating and Financial Officer, and as Interim Executive Director and Chief Investment Officer from 2021 to 2024. Lamar is an attorney and CPA with private and public sector experience.